

Together

By Christine Yoo, Elina Lee, and Meerae Lee

Not to be political but Racism is kinda cynical
Don't hate people because discrimination is like the devil in reincarnation

Pigmentation,
Confrontation,
Shouldn't have an association.
Black or white,
Light or dark,
This is our journey to embark
Where this started,
And with many cases uncharted,
We have to be wholehearted.
Stand together,
All through the cold weather,
So lets all thank each other's existence
But don't forget to social distance

So be careful with your word,
Don't say mean things, that's absurd
Remember not to discriminate,
If you've got that down, the rest is a piece of cake
So let's all give a smile
Even with your mask it can go for miles.
